

PATRICK S. OTTINGER (page 1 of 5)

Patrick S. Ottinger graduated from the University of Southwestern Louisiana with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1971.

He attended the Paul M. Hebert Law Center, Louisiana State University, from which he graduated with a Juris Doctorate degree in December, 1973. He was a member of the Moot Court Board.

Ottinger has been in private practice in Lafayette, Louisiana, since December 1973. He is a partner in the firm of Ottinger Hebert, L.L.C. His professional practice has been concentrated in the corporate and commercial area, with emphasis on oil and gas, financial transactions, real estate, eminent domain, mediation and arbitration, corporate and banking matters, as well as litigation in these areas.

From January 2004 through January 2011, he served as City-Parish Attorney for the Lafayette City-Parish Consolidated Government. In that capacity, he was the chief legal advisor to the City-Parish President, the Consolidated Council and all of the departments of government. Having served seven years, he served in this position longer than any other person.

He is admitted to practice in all Federal Courts in Louisiana, and in the United States Court of Appeal, Fifth Circuit. Since 1986, he has been admitted to practice in the State of Texas in which state he also maintains both a transactional and litigation practice.

He has organized and spoken at numerous continuing legal education seminars on oil and gas, banking and real estate topics sponsored by Louisiana State Bar Association, Lafayette Association of Professional Landman, Houston Association of Professional Landman, Houston Bar Association and University of Southwestern Louisiana (now University of Louisiana - Lafayette) -- Continuing Education Department.
