

S. GUY DELAUP (page 1 of 3)

Admitted to the Bar in 1981, Guy deLaup is a sole practitioner of S. Guy deLaup, APLC in Metairie, Louisiana. After serving as an Assistant District Attorney in Jefferson Parish for seven years, he has practiced extensively in the area of family law and has also represented clients in business, insurance litigation, franchise litigation and medical malpractice matters.

As a litigator representing both plaintiffs and defendants, Guy understands the importance of alternative dispute resolution. He has earned an AV rating from Martindale Hubbard and was nominated as a “Top Lawyer” by his peers.

He is a 1978 graduate of Louisiana State University and received his juris doctorate from LSU Law School in 1981, where he served as Vice Chairman of the Moot Court Board and participated in the Jessup Cup International Law Moot Court competition. He was trained as a mediator at Pepperdine University of Law and the Mediation Institute of Oklahoma.

Guy is a past president of both the Jefferson and Louisiana State Bar Associations. He is a current member of the LSU Law School Board of Trustees and a Continuing Legal Education speaker to the Louisiana State Bar Association, Jefferson State Bar Association, Lafayette Bar Association and the New Orleans Pro Bono Project.
