

ADRIAN NADEAU (page 1 of 1)

Adrian graduated from Louisiana State University with degrees in Political Science and History in 1999 and received his Juris Doctorate and Bachelor of Civil Law degrees from the Paul M. Hebert Law School at Louisiana State University in 2002. After graduating from the LSU Law Center, Adrian clerked for the Honorable Judges Brenda B. Ricks and Wayne Ray Chutz of the 21st Judicial District Court. Adrian is an active member of the Baton Rouge, Louisiana State, Federal, and American Bar Associations.

Over the course of his career, Adrian has successfully litigated hundreds of disputes, including matters involving professional liability, insurance defense, breaches of contract, leases, defective design and construction claims, and other business and commercial issues.

Adrian's extensive background and legal acumen enable him to provide risk management counsel to business owners and executives at every step of the transaction and contract lifecycle, from documenting and negotiating key terms, to closing the deal.

A legal and industry innovator, Adrian has served in several leadership positions in legal and industry organizations. He is the past chair of the Construction Law Section of the Baton Rouge Bar Association and a former member of the Louisiana State Bar Association Board of Governors.

As a member of the Long Law Firm management committee, Adrian has developed a first-hand understanding of the challenges and opportunities facing companies today and applies this knowledge to help his clients address legal and business issues more effectively.
